

Mastering Manifestation: Kabbalah Keys To Tarot Magic Lesson 11

Reading from the Zohar:

“... (T)he ordinance of the King, who brings all His statutes into this place and conceals them like someone hiding everything in one storehouse... He has inscribed and fashioned all His concealed treasures.”

- All of the laws of the universe are contained in Yesod, hidden from awareness totally identified with the material plane. (See Tarot Key 2: the veil)
- In Malkuth we learn from results how to adapt to reality and align with the way things work for the ultimate outcome.
  - As we maladapt we are taught through suffering

Practice Kabbalah Numerology

- Notice numbers, simplify to a single digit, identify its place on the Tree, ask for the meaning-guidance coming from the number.

Creating Through The Tree: The Eternal Process

- Sphere 1: Don't react; intend
- Sphere 2: Follow Wisdom
- Sphere 3: Take time to understand what is happening, what has happened, what will happen
- Sphere 4: Be merciful enough to live your life in harmony and balance
- Sphere 5: Be just and disciplined and pass through loss, difficulty and pain constructively
- Sphere 6: Follow your sense of love, balance, beauty and harmony
- Sphere 7: Align feelings with Victory
- Sphere 8: Align thoughts with Victory and demonstrate integrity
- Sphere 9: Stabilize the above
- Sphere 10: Align action with Victory (priorities)

The Ashim (Souls of Fire): Angels of The Kingdom

- They are released through fire,
  - Why candle light builds a spiritual atmosphere
  - Burn away old patterns

Key 12: The Hanged Man

- Represents the state of inner stillness required to receive higher guidance through Yesod.
- Hebrew Letter: Mem: Water
  - Water represents the psyche, in stillness it reflects the higher planes of consciousness.
