

The Magic Of Tarot Lesson 21

Tarot Key 20: Judgement

Key 19 depicts the joy of living from our original, unconditioned self
Key 20 depicts the awakening to 4th dimensional powers that follows

The JUDGEMENT referred to here is:

- the judgement of the cosmic process that births you into 4th dimensional consciousness when experience has sufficiently “ripened” you for it.
- This is the consciousness of
 - The inner causes of outer events
 - The Divine Presence
 - The judgement of the cosmic process relative to your choices
 - The awakening of your spiritual judgement as your guide

Perpetual Intelligence

- Our advancement along The Path to higher development, toward and in 4th dimensional awareness, is perpetual, eternal, builds from life to life.
 - We awakened to our yearning for more inner light without even clearly understanding where we were heading, based on how far in that direction we advanced in our previous life.

Icebergs:

- Represent solid and stable (perpetual) understanding of the Divine Will (white) behind what happens:
 - the evolutionary process leading to 4th dimensional awareness or mastery.

Trumpet Call

- The awakening to the higher frequencies of 4th dimensional consciousness

Figures looking upward:

- As with The Hanged Man, and the figures facing The Hierophant, looking upward = looking inward.

Planetary Association: Pluto

- Represents the destructive phase of the reproduction process.
- This is also the planet of regeneration; IE: dying to the old and being born anew into a higher heavenly dimension of awareness and activity.

The 3 gray figures:

- Here Gray is the color of wisdom – the wisdom of non-duality, which brings us into the entry way of 4th dimensional awareness.
 - The Man: Conscious Mind

- His hair is black but brushed back, meaning he is focusing his attention inward, no longer blinded by the darkness of the physical senses
- The Woman: Subconscious Mind
 - Her hair is yellow, indicating the illuminated subconscious mind.
- The Child: the newly born 4th dimensional or spiritual consciousness
 - His hair is yellow, indicating the illuminated conscious and subconscious giving birth to the spiritual or 4th dimensional consciousness.

The three gray coffins:

- Gray here represents the level of “stone unconsciousness” represented by the stones in Key 18
- Two rectangular coffins: the linear aspect of 3 dimensional consciousness where all causes are attributed to the material level.
- The square coffin: a balanced 4 sided figure that represents the completion of the purpose of material incarnation (4 is the number of the earth plane – earth, water, fire and air)
- The black inside of the coffins: the darkness of ignorance of the inner powers and processes of causation.

The 3 Figures arising above the coffins:

- entering 4th dimensional consciousness makes you master of the material kingdom.

The shape of their arms:

- Woman= L
- Child = V
- Man = x
- These 3 letters that form the latin word for light – LVX
 - in this case, receiving, worshiping, and being grateful for awakening to the inner light

Blue Wavey Water

- Water represents the mind-stuff of subconsciousness that gives birth to form
- The waves represent the vibratory frequencies of our awareness
 - Remember that all is energy

7 golden rays from the Trumpet

- The higher frequencies that activate the seven chakras

Golden Trumpet:

- Represents the alchemical gold, as awakening to higher consciousness gives you the power to manifest “gold” from the “lead” of material circumstances,
 - This awakening is a key to living in abundance
 - It also represents the elixir of eternal life (as you create where you are going in “heaven”)

The square white flag and the equal armed red cross:

- The square is a symbol of mastery over the earth plane through 4th dimensional awareness
- The color white represents awakening to the will of god (Kether) that provides us with right judgment for following our True Destiny
- The equal armed cross is another symbol of mastery of the 4 elements of earth-plane living:
 - Earth = action
 - Water = feelings, emotions, desires
 - Air = thought and speech
 - Fire = Will
 - It also represents the state of balance and equipoise needed to contact the higher frequencies of 4th dimensional awareness.

Archangel Gabriel:

- Gabriel means: Strength of God, suggesting the inner strength required to persevere until we reach the 4th Dimension.
- Closed eyes: suggests that the archangel is actually meditating US into higher consciousness.
 - suggesting that our awakening is a result of the formative process of our being conceived in Divine Subconscious Mind
- Archangel of Water, therefore of the Subconscious
- Archangels “live” in the World of Briah (creation) above the plane of form, directing the plane of form (Yetzirah)
- The call to higher consciousness is transmitted to us through feelings of vibrations (sound) passing through the subconscious
- His gentle, pretty feminine facial traits suggest that we are dealing with feelings and the subconscious here.
- His blue shirt represents the water of subconsciousness from which all forms emerge,
- The white trim around his neck connects him to the energy of Kether, Divine Will
- The red wings indicate that the changes here are translated into a new and higher level of activity

The cloud surrounding him

- relates to the fact that 4th dimensional consciousness is concealed from those wholly identified with the physical reality

The 12 sharp yellow rays

- refer to the breaking through of the inner light;
 - like the lightening in Key 16, this begins in an experience not so very pleasant.
- $4 \times 3 = 12$ (the light of the 4th dimension breaking through into 3 levels of consciousness: the conscious mind, the subconscious mind, and the spiritually conscious mind.
- The line dividing each ray into two: Non-duality consciousness or the awareness that does not judge any even as “bad”

Note: these rays come from the same sun we saw in Key 16, the breaking apart of material and separation consciousness necessary for awakening to the higher light of the 4th dimension, something going on globally as all systems fall apart (we are outgrowing all systems, like the conflicts over transgenders in sports, the breaking of the illusion of democracy, etc.)

Hebrew Letter Shin: means TOOTH

- As a tooth penetrates the meat it bites into, the conscious mind pierces into the 4th dimension or the 4th dimension penetrates material consciousness.
- Shin also represents the Divine Fire that dissolves all form and drives us to awaken to the inner dimensions of mastery

This is the image of the Resurrection Process

- the call to awaken to higher dimensions causes us to resurrect or come back to life after death.
- The death is physical as well as the state of consciousness that was dead to the spiritual or 4th dimension.

NOTE

The goal of a spiritual teacher is to help others into 4th dimensional awakening and mastery.
