

Tarot Meditations Session 7: The Cure For Relationship Lack

Answering the question: Why are there so few beautiful, harmonious relationships?

Opening Quotes:

*“When you connect with your purpose, you invite inspiration into your life. You give yourself permission to express your real self, and you can feel the joy that is your essence (the Hermit)”.
Arnold Patent*

“Adepts have learned what mental images shall occupy their attention. Therefore, they select images with care... Adepts succeed in controlling their world because they understand the real meaning of their personality (The Moon).” Paul foster Case”

“There are a small percentage of evolved beings that have more or less mastered their energies. They resonate with a dimension (frequency band) I’m calling ‘light’. They radiate high frequency energy or light, a presence that tends to induce a more centered, calm and spiritually awakened state. Often, a person who is becoming an energy being will attract a light being teacher who will assist them in make the transformation from a physical / sensory being to an energy being. There is not that many light beings around, so one is fortunate to come across one.” Dr. Greg Neilsen

“It should be born in mind that emotionalism (the unbalanced use of the emotions) must always create a smog-fog in the person, invariably preventing the proper functioning of his nerves, sensory-motor apparatus and his better judgment. Mishaps, accidents, upsets and negative happenings are thus automatic, concomitant results of unconscious thinking, feeling and acting.” Isidore Friedman

“The seer often sees that through suffering one is learning a much needed lesson...; hence, he will not interfere... (seeing that) to do so would injure, rather than help.” Vitvan

Opening Meditation

The Method For Dissolving Relationship Issues, With Tarot

- View Keys 6, 9, 14, 15, and 8 for one minute
  - Then open to the negative or disturbed feelings of disempowerment you have experienced in relationships and do The Method.

Notice the relationship between numeral 6 and numeral 9:

- See how they fit together as yin and yang.

Key 6 = The formula for a soulmate relationship

- The male represents The Magician, the first lesson learned by the Fool, who dances off a cliff in apparent oblivion to his surroundings and what he is doing
  - PAY ATTENTION:

- Instead of reacting automatically based on past personality programming, you practice awareness in the now (of the law of 3, in the present context - remember that change is constant)
- Open to higher inner guidance (The High Priestess looking upward and inward to reflect the guidance of higher levels.)
- The serpent behind the woman: represents the sublimation of the sexual energy which ultimately manifests as The Christos
- The 5 pieces of fruit behind the woman: the beautiful fruits of this process
- The Tree: the Tree of Life, portraying cooperation with the victorious structure, function, order of the universe
- The cloud between them: the invisible nature of the Higher Guide
- Their nudity: shameless self-awareness
- 12 flames on the tree behind the male: mastering the powers of the zodiac
- The mountain between them: they are guided by the path to the heights of spiritual attainment
- The astrological association is Gemini (ruling planet, Mercury), which is the sign of intellect of communication. It represents the right function of the intellect: messenger of the Gods.

Key 9: Preparation and Continual Practice

- It doesn't take much relationship experience to discover that we first need to master the challenges of The Hermit (union with our True Self) before we can maintain our balance and follow higher guidance in a relationship.
  - To Master Alone Time: Find and follow the inner light that reveals your TRUE path through the present situation.
    - 6-pointed star: the number 6 is an allusion to Tarot key 6: the integration of the physical world and higher spiritual dimensions
    - The staff represents the WILL required to remain focused on doing what is truly right for you regardless of what the other is doing.
    - The gray cloak represents wisdom, Sphere 2 on the Tree.
      - You have the capacity to tune into and RECEIVE higher wisdom to guide your steps when you are left alone
  - The Peak: The light guides you toward your higher attainment or evolution
  - The indigo of the sky represents finding the light in the darkness of your interior.
  - The yod represents both your union with your essence and the power of mastery which handles (the yod means: hand) aloneness
  - The astrological sign association with this key is Virgo: we have to watch every step
    - Also ruled by Mercury, as this key is about RECEIVING communication from the essence of our True Self
  - Standing still on the peak indicates the need for stillness to connect with the inner light on your higher path.

Key 14: Temperance: On The Tree of Life, Path 6 – 9 = Samech (Key 14: Temperance)

- Samech refers to internal support, the inner strength that grows through practicing the wisdom of Keys 6 and 9 in all situations and challenges of daily life.
- Key 14 represents the alchemical process that all of our experiences, particularly our challenges, put us through.
  - The alchemical process is the transmutation of the personality into a vehicle for the Higher Self and the eventual birth of the Christos
  - In Kabbalah Card readings, this path on the Tree represents Soulmates – the strengthening or alchemical process that prepares us for alchemical relationships.
    - The 5 yods represents the burning hunger of the 5 physical senses.
    - The Crown represents attainment of Kether on the Tree, the Crown, alignment with, surrender to and trust in the Absolute Power of Divine Will.
  - The foot in the water: We need to get into the subconscious to see what is going on and to rule over or dominate it
  - The foot lifted above the earth represents the rising above identification with the material plane.
  - The lion is daring, the eagle transformation at the deepest level
  - The solar disk on the angel: the process is guided by the True Light, the Light that illumines the Path to the True or Higher Self (alignment of the personality with the cosmic process)
- The Astrological association is Sagittarius: Philosophical expansion

14 = 1 + 4 (The Magician and The Emperor)

- Practice being INTENTIONAL about functioning in an orderly way, and an orderly state, to build a relationship on the earth plane

1 + 4 = 5

- Following intention (The Magician) to function in an orderly, reasonable way (The Emperor) gives birth to the Inner Voice of Cosmic Principle (Key 5, The Hierophant) that intuitively guides you from within.
- 5 on The Tree of Life is Gevurah, Severity or Justice.
  - It indicates that being in a relationship is challenging.

6 + 9 = 15 (The Devil):

- Liberation from bondage (to false beliefs in dependency on the outer – including other people, the false belief that you are your physical body, the false belief in any power outside of you).
  - This is essential for maintaining our balance and following out higher calling in the context of the relationship.

6 + 9 + 14 + 15 = 44 = 8 (Strength)

- The ultimate purpose of a relationship is to sublimate our forces (and all of nature: the wreathe) through the right use of the power of suggestion to ascend the heights (the mountain in the distance), into the arising of the Kundalini or Christos (the lion's tail) for the awakening to your Infinite Power (the figure 8 on it's side).

- As we practice this we experience the highest level of harmonious mutual support the relationship can provide.

Closing Meditation: Going Through The Cards

- Feel yourself in the state represented by each of the Keys we studied this evening
  - 6 = become aware in the present and open to higher guidance
  - 9 = feel yourself uniting with the essence of your True Self
  - 14 = feel yourself welcoming and trusting your relationship challenges as opportunities to grow in mastery
  - 15 = face any feeling of fear you have relative to relationships and do The Feeling Exercise on the feeling.
  - 8 = Remind yourself that you live in a perfect universe that always perfectly loves and supports you, and feel what it feels like to live in such a universe.
