

Tarot Meditations: Session 16: Bringing Higher Intelligence To Life, For Higher Results

Life works algorithmically, reflecting back to you what you demonstrate interest in (pay attention to). You send out everything about you all of the time. That is your radiance; what is called in Kabbalah your Hod (Hebrew), your Glory. Everyone tuned into what you send out comes forth. This is TRUE marketing, and it works perfectly. Improve what you send out to improve what comes back to you. Focus on what you want more of and like magic, it comes. You just have to learn HOW to focus for that magic to happen. This wisdom and power is demonstrated by Tarot Key 1 in the BOTA Tarot.

Just like on the Internet, you can direct what comes back to you. It responds to your interests based on your focus of attention. The universe is constantly give you what you want more of. Why? Because it is based on Omnipotent Perfect Love. When we don't like what comes back, we can call that "a learning experience". The consequences point to the changes you need to make in your focus.

How we judge a thing (person, experience, the universe) is the experience we lock ourselves into. Living in negative judgment is the opposite of a truly intelligent approach to life.
